Enabling Learning Without Boundaries

Certificate Program in E-Learning:
Design, Development, and Evaluation

McWeadon is currently offering 4-week online classes in E-Learning—especially designed for participants who want to gain experience in the design, development and evaluation of e-learning. Each course is offered with special discounted rate of US $99, and taught by professionals with extensive experience in designing/teaching online courses. They have taught similar, semester-long courses at accredited universities in the United States that cost between $1,500- $2,000. We eliminate all unnecessary material costs and you can learn all you need to know within one month. Learn in a highly facilitated manner at your convenience. Our instructors are personally accountable to ensuring the utmost quality and interaction, and the credibility of this valuable learning environment.

Enroll today and prepare yourself to work in the exciting and emerging field of online learning. Upon completion of four courses, participants will receive the E-Learning Program Certificate.
