Enabling Learning Without Boundaries

Certificate Program in Second Life for Education and Training

McWeadon is currently offering 4-week online classes in Second Life to help you become comfortable in, and familiar with this virtual world. McWeadon instructors are experienced Second Life residents and will be your personal coaches and guides as you develop inworld skills, and discover an exciting new world. Courses are developed with the students' particular interests and needs in mind. Instruction and coaching will take place in Second Life; discussion and reflection in our Moodle learning management system.

Each course is offered at a special discounted rate of US $99, because we eliminate all unnecessary materials cost. You can learn what you need to know in month-long workshops, in a highly facilitated manner, at your convenience. Our instructors are personally accountable to ensuring the utmost quality and interaction, and the credibility of this valuable learning environment.

McWeadon Second Life Certificate Program comprises four courses. Based on your needs, interests, and skills, the program director will help you select four courses from the list below:

ET525: Getting a Second Life

ET529: Evaluation & Development of Second Life for Education and Training

ET526: Exploring your Second Life

ET530: Sizing Up Second Life for your Organization

ET527: Settling in to your Second Life

ET531: Second Life for Educators

ET528: Instructional Design for Second Life

Enroll today and prepare yourself to work in the exciting and emerging field of virtual worlds. At the end of each course, participants will receive a certificate of course completion. Upon completion of four courses, participants will receive the Virtual Worlds (Second Life) in Education and Training Certificate.
