

Workshops

Today's busy professionals need to update their skills continually and new knowledge must be integrated into workplace performance. McWeadon workshops allow you to learn at times convenient to you, at work and on the road. Our workshops in specific and career-targeted areas can give you the knowledge, skills and credentials to advance your careers.

McWeadon Workshops are facilitated by practitioners with a broad range of experience in education, business and industry, who understand individual and corporate professional development needs. They offer hands-on, workable methods and techniques that can immediately be integrated into everyday practice.

McWeadon can offer instructor-led, on-site workshops for your organization at a location of your choice. We also offer similar workshops entirely online. We are continuously researching and developing new workshops topics that will fill professional learning needs. Currently, we offer

- E-Learning Instructional Design, Development and Evaluation

- Virtual Worlds (Second Life) in Education and Training

McWeadon Facilitator Dr. Badrul Khan conducted an E-Learning Planning Workshop at ARAMCO
